UPDATES

Principal Planner Bator gave the following updates to the Board:

1. At the January 26, 2022, Design Review Board meeting, Principal Planner Matt Bator provided an update on the January 26, 2022, Special Meeting of the City Council in which two amended urgency ordinances were adopted to extend the expiration date associated with modifications to temporary commercial sign restrictions and temporary placement of A-frame signage in the public right-of-way from March 1, 2022, to September 30, 2022. The City Council authorized the City Manager to take the following actions to be in effect until September 30, 2022:
 - a. Extend the March 1, 2022, expiration dates for all COVID-related permits issued including temporary Encroachment Permits and Temporary Use Permits.
 - b. Extend the temporary allowance of two A-frame signs per business.
 - c. Extend provisions for use of on-street parking for dining or other uses.
 - d. Continue the temporary streamlined review process for commercial A-frame signage temporarily located in the right-of-way adjacent to all commercial zones.
 - e. Extend the one-hour extension of alcohol sales, service, and consumption for any restaurant with an approved Sidewalk Café permit.
2. Glenn Warren's term is going to expire. On February 7, 2022, City Council will be holding interviews to fill the Design Review Board Member position. Elena Oanta's position for Ex-Officio is also going to expire. There are no applicants for Ex-Officio at this time.
