

Administrative Design Review Permits

The Administrative Design Review (ADR) process was established as a less costly and more expeditious means to review the types of development projects that are typically less complex and controversial.

Information about Administrative Design Review process can be obtained from the Del Mar Municipal Code Chapter 23.08.035 or by contacting the Community Development and Planning Department.

For more information, please access the following documents:

- Uniform Development Application
- Letter of Authorization to Submit a Project
- ADR: Administrative Design Review Permit – Submittal Checklist
- ADR: Administrative Design Review Permit – Applicant Guide
- Municipal Code Chapter 23.08 - Design Review